PHOTOS TAKEN BY ELECTRICITY

A former Honolulu man, who has studied the business in the east, and a land expert have opened a studio in the Empire building on Bethel street near Hotel for the purposes of lightning photography. They guarantee to take and deliver perfect pictures in ten minutes. Portraits are also printed on postal cards in a few minutes.

Everything is done by electricity, and a feature is that pictures may be taken day or night with equal speed and accuracy. No flash-light is used for night work. It is claimed that the photos thus produced are permanent and will never fade.

One of the most striking parts of the proposition is the cheapness of the pictures. For instance, four perfect likenesses are turned out for fifty cents and a dozen for a dollar. Larger quantities in proportion.

The new concern also enlarges photographs by an improved process, and prints pictorial business cards.

The opening of this interesting studio is scheduled for this (Saturday) afternoon, and by three or four o'clock it should be running in full blast, with a large number of people present to secure lightning photographs of their week-end smiles. The place will be open all of this evening and a rushing business will doubtless be done by the enterprising gentlemen in charge.

The place is only two or three doors from the corner of Hotel street, on Bethel.

SICKNESS N KONA.

Among Kona items in the Kohala Midget is the following:
All shows and public entertainments were stopped during the holidays, on account of prevalence of typhoid, measles, diphtheria, poliomyelitis and chicken pox in the district. Fortunately it was vacation for the schools, and that occasion for bringing people together and spreading disease was obviated.

THE UNDESIRABLE ELEMENT.

Labor Commissioner Keefe left the islands firm in the belief that Filipino labor is undesirable here, on account of the small stature of the men, and "the lawless character of many of them here in the territory." How well the latter charge is borne out by facts is shown by the following statistics of arrests and convictions for crime in the South Hilo Circuit Court, in the last year. Of the thirteen hundred arrests, 168 were Hawaiians, 101 Chinese, 484 Japanese, 62 Koreans, 88 Portuguese, 109 Filipinos, 10 Spaniards, 86 Portuguese, 13 Russians, other foreigners, 57.—Kohala Midget.

ROYAL HAWAIIAN GARAGE.

Manager George Wells, of the Royal Hawaiian Garage, has not had any sales this week, but has had a busy time of it in the repair shop and with rent machines. The new Marmon, received a few days ago, is in the floor and is a beauty.
In addition to the Marmon, the Royal Hawaiian handles the celebrated Alco, the equally famed Cartecar and the fast Lexington in the islands.
